

HEAVY DUTY

Take your crew and your gear almost anywhere – for daily pleasure or professional use.

Built To Take It – Plus Your Crew And Gear – Most Anywhere.

Mercury's Heavy Duty Series of inflatable boats is designed for daily pleasure or professional use. They are built strong enough to take larger engines, with the largest model able to take up to 30hp. Special reinforced fabrics and a durable floor will handle you and all of your gear, year after year. Amazing is simply an understatement. Whether you choose to stay on-board or roll off the pliable sides with your dive tanks on, the Heavy Duty Series is ready for your next outing.
